Assassin Attempts To Kill Georges Clemenceau

INJURY WILL NOT GREATLY DELAY PEACE PARLEYS

Premier Clemenceau Was On Way For Conference With Col. House

PERSONALLY CONDUCTED MANY OF NEGOTIATIONS

Was Working For Early Consummation of Treaty of Peace

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Paris, Feb. 19.—The American delegates to the peace conference, when they learned of the attempt upon Premier Clemenceau's life today began to consider the effect of the event upon their own plans in connection with the conference. On the assumption that the official reports minimizing the nature of M. Clemenceau's injuries were correct, the belief was expressed that there would not be any great delay in the execution of the comprehensive plans laid out for the proceedings of the peace conference during the absence of President Wilson and David Lloyd George, the British premier.

Premier Clemenceau when he was shot, was on his way to a conference with Colonel E. M. House, of the American peace delegation and Arthur J. Balfour, the British foreign secretary. The conference had been fixed for 10 o'clock at the war office when an important question was to have been taken up concerning more rapid procedure before the supreme council.

The news of the attempted assassination reached Colonel House by telephone from the foreign office just as he was starting from the Hotel De Crillion with Secretary Balfour to meet Premier Clemenceau at the Quai D'Orsay.

Owing to the fact that M. Clemenceau had in hand personally certain subjects now under negotiation, it follows that so far as these are concerned there must be a suspension of activity for the time being. As a matter of fact these subjects were of vast importance as affecting the whole plan of the conference's operation inasmuch as they related to consummation of an early treaty of peace.

There had already been some discussion of this situation privately between the premiers of the various powers and it is believed that all were in accord regarding the wisdom of speedy action with the exception of Premier Clemenceau himself. The French government, while desirous of an early peace, doubted whether the moment had yet arrived when this could be arranged without great danger of sacrificing the fruits of victory and it had pointed out to the other powers what were regarded as grave omissions on the part of Germany to comply with the terms of the armistice.

PRESIDENT MAY ARRIVE SUNDAY

Vessel Is Making Good Progress, Wireless Report to Washington Says.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, Feb. 19.—Wireless dispatches to the White House today from the presidential transport, George Washington, indicated that the ship was making such good speed that she might drop anchor in Boston harbor Sunday night. In that event, President Wilson probably would remain aboard until Monday morning, and deliver his address in Boston some time during the day. The Boston speech is expected by administration officials to be confined almost entirely to an appeal to the country for support of the League of Nations. It was said today that the president would probably utilize the opportunity to take the public into his confidence as to the need for such a league, but that he would reserve any detailed explanation of the articles of the proposed constitution for his conference with members of congress and an address to congress on the subject which he probably will deliver soon after arrival in Washington.

MEXICAN EDITOR HAS PRAISE FOR WILSON

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

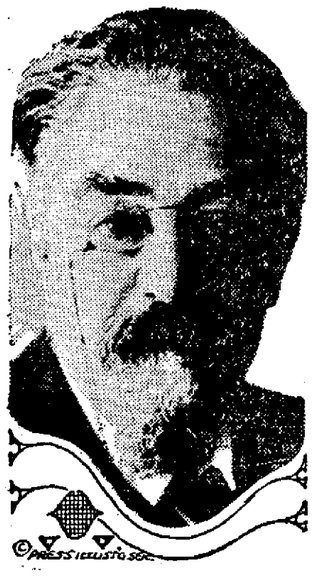

Mexico City, Feb. 19.—The Universal prints an editorial this morning under the heading "President Wilson evolves new world politics," which praises the ideals of the League of Nations and asserts that Mexico will be protected by it. The newspaper declares that President Wilson "more than any other man of all times, deserves the gratitude of mankind."

"Territorial integrity, liberty and prosperity the editorial says, "are guaranteed to peoples by the League of Nations, which upon the conclusion of the war will eliminate the useless formula of the balance of power and resolve international disputes, not by war, the resource of savages, but by arbitration, the resource of civilization."

HOUSE CUTS ARMY TO 175,000 MEN

Bill Passed Last Night Would Reduce Standing Army to Pre-War Basis.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, Feb. 19.—The peace time army of the United States for the year beginning next July 1, is fixed at 175,000 men—the number authorized by the national defense act of 1916, under a senate bill sent to conference today after passage last night by the house. In voting to sustain a point of order and to substitute the senate measure for the temporary army provision of the annual army appropriation bill, the house refused the request of the war department for a military establishment for the next year of approximately 540,000 officers and men.

As the bill passed the house in virtually the same form as enacted by the senate the conferees will have for consideration only the house amendments fixing the period of enlistment in the new army at one year and fixing the pay for enlisted men at $30 a month.

Immediately after passing the temporary army bill the house adopted the annual army appropriation bill setting aside $1,070,000,000 for the war department for the next fiscal year. On points of order legislative provisions of the measure were stricken out. These included the temporary army provision, the section revoking the authority of the President under the Overman act to consolidate or create new bureaus in the war department, and the provision prohibiting the wearing of service chevrons.

The appropriation was sent to the senate today. Its passage there at this session is regarded by leaders as doubtful.

HEARING TURNS INTO BIG DEBATE

Wet and Dry Speakers at Temperance Hearing Wax Warm in Arguments On Liquor Question.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Columbus, Feb. 19.—The session of the joint temperance committee of the legislature this morning to hear representatives of the soldiers and sailors suffrage league in opposition to the prohibition enforcement bill was turned into a joint debate between soldiers on the question of prohibition.

After speakers for the league opposing prohibition had presented their arguments in which they opposed any legislation on the temperance question and particularly the passage of the Miller-Crabbe bills as emergency measures, soldiers from the Columbus barracks and elsewhere, invited in by the drys urged passage of the prohibition bills and denied that soldiers from overseas and those in the cantonments of this country were opposed to the passage of the prohibition amendment.

During the hearing several fills between members of the committee and Chairman Miller occurred. Senator Wright of Cleveland took exception to the action of the chairman of the committee in arranging for a joint debate and demanded a separate hearing.

ERZBERGER SAYS GEN. HINDENBURG DEMANDED PEACE

Declares High Military Power Commanded Acceptance of Armistice

SPEAKER DEFENDS ARMISTICE COMMISSION'S ACTIONS

Address Received With Cheers by New German Assembly

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Weimar, Tuesday, Feb. 18.—Mathias Erzberger of the German armistice commission again held the center of the stage at this afternoon's session of the national assembly, outlining the entire history of the armistice negotiations from the time they were begun last fall. His statement was in reply to a bitter personal attack made upon him by the first speaker to be heard under the rule giving time for an interpellation regarding the recently renewed armistice delegate Vogler of the German peoples party.

The house was in an uproar for the better part of an hour, first in protest against Herr Vogler's attack and then in enthusiastic support of Erzberger as he defended himself and scathingly denounced his assailant.

Erzberger told the house many things about the armistice which were either unknown to or had only been suspected by his hearers. One of these was his unqualified statement that it was Prince Maximilian of Baden who had approached the entente because of the iron commission of the high military command for peace. It was Field Marshal von Hindenburg who demanded and authorized the signing of the first terms, Erzberger declared.

Herr Erzberger who seemingly has been very unpopular because of his work in the armistice negotiations and who received only scattered applause when he spoke last week to the national assembly, re-established himself by his speech today not only with his own party but with all others with the exception of the conservatives. Their demonstration caused Herr Vogler to stop speaking by drowning out his voice. The house then cheered Herr Erzberger at the conclusion of his speech, breaking the house rules and applauding as well as cheering for several minutes until it was called to order by President Fehrenbach.

After Herr Erzberger completed his speech the court theatre was almost vacated, most of the members and the crowds in the galleries withdrawing. Only a few persons remained to hear speeches by Herr Mueller, a majority socialist from Bresiau and Herr Groeber a leader of the centrist party.

BRIBERY CHARGE AGAINST OFFICERS

Navy Court Martial to Try Two Officers For Accepting Fee From Recruits.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, Feb. 19.—Trial by court-martial of two naval officers in connection with charges of bribery and graft in the third naval district have been ordered by Secretary Daniels.

It was announced today that sufficient evidence had been submitted this morning in a preliminary report by investigators to warrant these trials immediately. Secretary Daniels said at least two other cases were developing.

No names were made public, but it was learned that one case involved the acceptance by a naval medical officer of a bribe of $1000 for passing an applicant who was not physically qualified for the duties he sought, and another case involved a bribe of $500 to secure details which would permit the applicant to remain at home indefinitely.

ITALIANS DON'T LIKE ARBITRATION IDEA

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Rome, Tuesday, Feb. 18.—The Italian press indignantly condemns the step taken by the Jugo-Slavs in asking that President Wilson arbitrate conflicting claims to territories along the Adriatic. The Epoca says:

"Arbitration as a means for avoiding war, not concluding it, when it has already been decided by arms."

"Italy can despise the unworthy attacks brought against her," says the Idea Nazionale. "She must keep a sharp lookout and have faith in herself, in that way she was able to give her hereditary enemy an immortal blow. She must be firm at Paris, so that her best blood shall not have been shed in vain."

The Corriere de Italia says:

"It is to be foreseen that the Jugo-Slavs and their friends will take advantage of the effect of the Italian refusal to sub mit territorial claims to arbitration on public opinion in other countries, especially America, but this attempt, we do not doubt, will fail."

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

"TIGER OF FRANCE" ATTACKED BY GUNMAN BELIEVED TO BE NATIVE OF RUSSIA

M. CLEMENCEAU

WAR CHEST NOT FOR HOMECOMING COMMITTEE MEMBERS ASSERT

Will Solicit Fund of $1000 to Pay For Celebration Honoring Returned Soldiers—Fix Probable Date of Event as April 15th.

To perfect plans for a welcome home celebration for the returned men in the service, a committee appointed by Mayor H. A. Atherton met at the mayor's office Monday evening.

The different committees were announced, and the discussion as to ways and means came up. The mayor stated that he had recommended that council make an appropriation but no action was taken. A suggestion that the money be obtained from the war chest was opposed by a member of the appropriation committee of the war chest who was present. He stated that it would be impossible to obtain any money for the purpose of a celebration from the war chest as he did not consider it "war work."

So it was put up to the finance committee and it is probable that a campaign will be made to collect funds from the city and county to defray expenses, estimated last night at $1,000.

April 15 was set as the probable date of the celebration, but the date may be changed if it is found impractical. The mayor was instructed to get into communication with the officials at Washington to ascertain what troops are in this country and the ones which may be designated for early sailing dates.

Also all men who have received their discharge from the service and are now home are asked to mail a post card to Mayor H. A. Atherton or to call the mayor's office in order that all the men who have returned may be registered and take part in the celebration. This information is desired in order to assist the committees in making their plans.

The following committee were named and the chairman of the various committees will make the personnel of the general executive committee:

Finance—W. M. Morgan, L. S. Newkirk, C. H. Stull, W. W. Gard, Chas. Lake, C. H. Spencer, T. C. Jury, Tom Noland.

Refreshments—Jas. Criswell, Mrs. Rollin Sook, Mrs. F. P. Winn, Miss Edna Alward, L. S. Newkirk.

Entertainment—O. J. Barnes, Gottlieb Zinn, W. H. Mazey, T. J. Appleyard, C. H. Stull.

GERMAN CABINET CHANGES DECISION

Had Concluded to Reject New Terms For Armistice But Finally Ordered It Signed.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Weimar, Monday, Feb. 17.—The German cabinet voted early Sunday morning to reject the allied terms for the renewal of the armistice and take the chances of an allied military advance being ordered. After consultation with party leaders however, the decision was changed and on Sunday night orders were issued that the armistice be signed.

ASKS $12,000 FOR INJURY IN MISHAP

Traction Engine Owner Claims Defective Bridge Allowed Machine to Fall Into Creek.

Earl Hayes has filed a petition in common pleas court against the county commissioners in which he asks for $12,000 damages. The petition recites that on Aug. 19, 1918, the plaintiff was driving a traction engine over a bridge crossing the Licking creek west of Homer, this county, and that the timbers were defective and unfit for use and had become affected with dry rot, which fact was known to the commissioners.

Hayes states that the bridge gave way and he was precipitated with the engine to the creek, a distance of 17 feet, that the engine was damaged to the extent of $1,500 and a separator attached damaged in the sum of $500, and that he was badly injured, five ribs being broken and his right lung punctured. He also suffered an injury to his chest which produced a permanent curvature of the spine, all in the sum of $10,000, or a total of $12,000, which sum he asks be awarded him.

FOREIGN OFFICE TO CONTROL COMMISSION

Basel, Switzerland, Feb. 19. The German armistice commission will in future be under control of the foreign office, according to an unofficial dispatch from Berlin received here. Foreign secretary Brockdorff-Rantzau will receive to himself supreme decisions of importance. The national assembly will naturally be consulted on all decisive questions, it is said.

Reports of the resignation of Captain von Selow, naval delegate from the German armistice commission, are semi-officially declared to be unfounded.

AGED FRENCH PREMIER GRAPPLES WITH MAN; IS SHOT IN SHOULDER

ATTACK IS MADE AS STATESMAN STARTS TO ENTER AUTOMOBILE TO GO TO FRENCH WAR OFFICE

ASSAILANT IS ARRESTED PROMPTLY BY POLICE OFFICER STANDING NEAR

Policeman Wounded By Bullet Intended For Cabinet Leader—Wouldbe Murderer Apparently Is a Workman —Identity Is Not Revealed.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Paris, Feb. 19.—Georges Clemenceau, France's aged, but vigorous premier, was shot at and slightly wounded this morning as he was entering his automobile for a drive.

Five shots were fired by the assassin, and it was at first reported that the premier had been wounded in the head. It developed later, however, that the wounds were in M. Clemenceau's back and shoulder and he apparently is not dangerously hurt.

The shooting took place at 8:55 o'clock this morning as the premier was leaving his home in the Rue Franklin to go to the war office.

The assassin was an ordinary-looking man, dressed as a workman. Five shots were fired, of which one took effect in the premier's shoulder. The assailant was arrested.

Policeman Goursat, who was wounded in the right eye, although not seriously, by one of the assassin's shots, told a representative of the Associated Press that Premier Clemenceau rushed up to the assassin and grappled with him.

The premier's wound is not regarded as dangerous in itself but it is felt that there might be serious consequences from it, considering the age and infirmities of the victim.

At about 11 o'clock this morning, however, it was officially announced that M. Clemenceau was not seriously wounded.

It was learned at the city hall that the assailant of Premier Clemenceau was a man named Emile Cottin, 25 years of age, and born at Creil. The man said his home was in the Montrouse quarter of Paris. The police, however, do not believe the papers he possesses belong to him and are inclined to think him a Russian.

Policeman Goursat gave his description of the shooting to the Associated Press representative in the city hall where the arrested man was brought.

An enormous crowd which observed a respectful silence, assembled near M. Clemenceau's residence after the occurence. Within a half hour President Poincare arrived. He was quickly followed by various members of cabinet, high officials of the government and representatives of the army and navy as well a sof the diplomatic corps, including William Graves Sharp, the American ambassador.

He is fair with long light hair and is tall in stature. One of the witnesses of the shooting—Henry Moulin, a barber's assistant—told the Associated Press representative that when he heard the first shot fired he believed it was the Americans firing in the air, "as they are in the habit of doing," he said. Moulin rushed out of his shop when he saw what was happening, however, crying: "They have assassinated Clemenceau!" He closed with the premier's assailant, Moulin added, and the man threw away his revolver and held up his hands.

Waiters from a nearby restaurant joined in holding the assassin in whom the police had some difficulty in getting from them and before the police secured the assassin he was beaten by the crowd. One of the men in the crowd seemed to wish to help the premier's assailant and the crowd beat him badly.

According to Policeman Goursat the assassin entirely emptied his weapon. All the windows of the premier's automobile were smashed by the bullets.

Premier Clemenceau was very slightly wounded, the Havas agency states. He was struck in the shoulder by a bullet. The premier was able to walk to his home.

When the first shot was fired Premier Clemenceau immediately tried to open the door of his car. It was while he was attempting to do this that he was struck. He was able to go on foot into his house, where shortly before the Associated Press was informed he was sitting up in an arm chair smoking and laughing with his staff of assistants.

The only sign of trouble from the wound, it was stated was a slightly increased temperature.

First reports of the incidents of the shooting were contradictory as to some particulars in especial as to whether the premier was inside or outside his automobile when the shots were fired. It seems to have been established, however, that M. Clemenceau was already in his automobile. It had started and was turning the corner of the Rue Franklin into the Rue Del Essert when a man standing on the sidewalk jumped toward the door of the automobile and fired several times. One of the bullets penetrated the interior of the car and struck the premier in the right shoulder. The premier had tried to open the door of the car when the first shot was fired, although the automobile was under considerable headway at the time, and it was while he was thus engaged that the bullet hit him. His chauffeur, Bruland, also was lightly wounded. Thus three of the assassin's bullets, it appears, took effect, one upon the premier, another upon the chauffeur, and the third upon Policeman Goursat, who was one of the police agents who guarded the premier.

It was in the struggle with the assassin after he shot into the automobile that the police officer was wounded. Meanwhile the premier had stepped out of his automobile and walked into his house.

Georges Clemenceau has been one of the leading statesmen of France for decades, but it was not until the critical stages of the great war came that he took the reins and guided the country through to the end of the struggle that he became the world-renowned figure that he is today.

With the war, or at least, the actual fighting ended, M. Clemenceau has con-

BOLSHEVISM IS WORSE THAN CZAR

American Back From Russia Tells Senators of Conditions in That Country.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, Feb. 19.—Russia is more down-trodden under the Bolsheviki than she ever was under the czar, the senate propaganda investigating committee was told yesterday by Herman Bernstein, an American writer who spent some time in Russia. He said this new slavery actually was brought about by the Germans.

"Truth," the witness went on, "completely disarms the Bolsheviki. The exposure of their methods is sufficient to end it everywhere forever. That's why freedom of speech has been entirely suppressed and why no news is permitted to be sent out of Russia."

The witness said he knew certain men sent to this country from Russia had been in the employ of the Bolsheviki.

"The program of Russia has been, and is today," he said, "to bring about the overthrow of governments throughout the world. They also were trying in every way while the war was on to bring about victory for the central powers."

Mr. Bernstein said it was not true as some witnesses had intimated that the Bolsheviki were led by Jews. Bolshevism, he declared, had no connection with any religion and confessed no creed.

ESTHONIANS RETIRE BEFORE BOLSHEVISTS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

London, Feb. 18.—Esthonian troops have been forced to fall back before the Bolsheviki in the region of Pskov, according to an official statement issued last night by the Esthonian headquarters. The statement reads:

"In the direction of Pskov, because of the enemy's supremacy, our troops have been forced to retire to the line of the villages of Vidernika, Lezgi, Sokolova, Podgezje and Koshelo. There is violent fighting in the direction of Volmar."

Bolsheviki forces on Saturday attacked the Esthonians on the line running from Marva on the Gulf of Finland, southward to Pskov and thence around the southern end of Lake Peipus to Volmar, on the Aa river, northeast of Riga. It would appear that the retirement mentioned in the foregoing dispatch is in the center of the front under attack.

PLAN RECEPTION FOR AIR HERO

Joe Haskins, Yankee Aviator, Home From Abroad, to Be Given Reception at Granville Tomorrow.

(Special to the Advocate)

Granville, Feb. 19 Joe Haskins, aviator, veteran of army battles, arrived in Newark this morning at 9 o'clock and came on to Granville immediately, where he was received with open arms by those who knew of his coming.

Announcement was made at Granville today that a public reception and demonstration would be accorded the aviator Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the Opera House. Today, Haskins is spending with his parents and tomorrow he will belong to the village. Today, Broadway is brilliant with flags and bunting in honor of Haskins.

The Granville school board at the conference Monday evening, after discussion of the important question as to the best manner of using the $22,000 at its disposal, finally voted to apply it to the building of an addition to the present structure on the public school grounds.

Mrs. W. C. Ebaugh, Jr., left last evening, accompanied by her three children, for Philadelphia where the funeral service for Mrs. W. C. Ebaugh Sr., killed in a railroad accident Monday evening this side of Pittsburgh, will be held Friday. Mrs. Ebaugh left Newark at 6:15 p. m. and was joined at Pittsburgh at 9 o'clock by her father and her husband in charge of the body of their beloved dead. The death of Mrs. Ebaugh has been deeply felt in Granville where already all hearts had responded to her unusual charm and force of character, although resident here for a only a few months.

Many readers of the Advocate remember Miss Anna B. Jones who resided in Granville until she had finished her course at the Granville Female College. When still a young girl she went to Constantinople where she now is head of the American school for girls. A letter to her old friends has just been received in Granville apprising them of her safety and personal welfare following the unpleasant conditions brought about by the war.

Speaking of the many deprivations and inconveniences attending the defeat of the Germans and Turks, Miss Jones says: "The proud Turks need all these lessons and inconveniences to make them realize that their conquerors are also to be their deliverers. We have hope and a bright prospect to help us bear these present ills now." Commenting on the ravages of the "Spanish Fever" in Constantinople she goes on to speak of the signing of the armistice:

"The armistice came as a surprise to us on the first of November. The Christian population went wild with excitement and we were on a strain of expectation until the fleet came in. Our terrace commanded a superb view as the 42 ships came gradually and silently, majestically up upon the bosom of the Marmora early in the morning. Air ships hovered over torpedo boats convoyed them in by groups. Seventeen anchored in front of us until nearly noon and then gradually swept out toward the Gulph of Nicomedia. While the ships were coming in a beautiful rainbow appeared against a black cloud in the west. I said: 'A bow of promise for this poor land,' and was so overcome that I wept. We had restrained our enthusiasm about flags, and had not put any out until that morning; then according to what seemed to me the pathetic order of the Turks, we hoisted the Turkish flag together with American and English, and we put the Turkish flag, which was much larger, highest of all. I said that they will be glad some day, though terribly humiliated now.

"Now we are being overwhelmed with applicants for children who have been placed in German schools: Nothing has pleased me so much as to see the haughty Germans folding their tents and silently, meekly stealing away. Retribution is telling on the heads of many besides the Kaiser. This work of reconstruction is tremendous and if the English and French prove equal to it this will be the grand achievement of the war.

"If there is still a Granville Times perhaps my old friends would be pleased if you would publish a part of this letter in it. . . . My plans for the coming summer are uncertain, but if workers for the coming year, 1919-20, can be assured, I may come home. Love all stored up these months, from Anna B. Jones, American School, Sedik Pasha, Constantinople, Turkey, December, 6, 1918."

The parlors of the Presbyterian church were filled with an appreciative audience Tuesday evening, assembled for the unique and delightful entertainment given by the Granville Tent of the Daughters of Veterans under direction of the president, Mrs. Ernest Shenardson. "Pictures in the Fire" were the reminiscenes of an old couple (Mrs. Clemons as grandma and Mrs. Parrish as grandpa) and were illustrated in a series of tableaux, accompanied by either a reading or a selection by a vocal quartet composed of Mrs. Rohrer and Mrs. Thompson, Professor Stickney and Professor Detweiler.

Mrs. L. A. Austin is in receipt of a letter from Mrs. Charles Hughes of Groveport to the effect that while it is true that she has opened the old Hughes home in that city for the reception of her nephew, Dwight Simple, when he returns from overseas, it is an erroneous impression that he has already arrived. As soon as he is in a condition to leave the English hospital for the long journey, he will come to the home of his grandparents in Groveport, and she will keep house for him—a prospect which fills him with delight.

Miss M. E. Penney of Newark was a Granville visitor Tuesday.

Mrs. Homer Davis, president of the Newark Federation of Women's clubs, announces that Newark is to entertain the Central district on April 2 and 3, and emphasizes the fact that all clubs in the college town are invited, whether federated or not. A reception is to be held in Masonic hall on the night of April second and an all day meeting in the Baptist church on the third.

Rev. J. C. Robinson of Boston, Baptist Foreign secretary, and one of the most powerful preachers of the denomination, will speak in the Granville Baptist church next Sunday evening on "The Appeal of India."

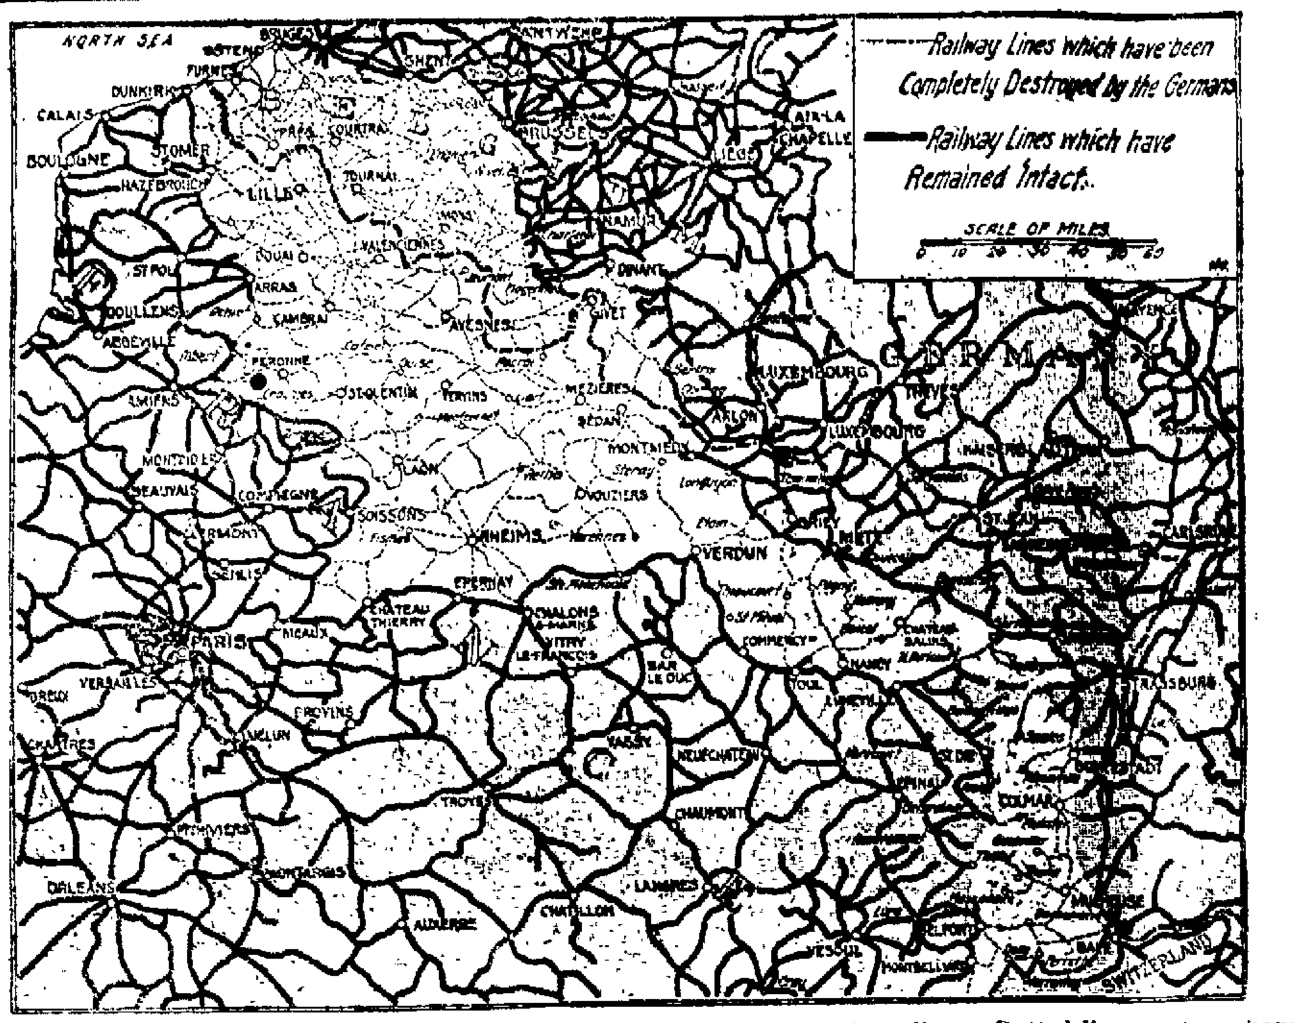

Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Stanton opened their home in East Broadway, Monday evening to the student volunteer band, when Rev. Mr. Sinzizer gave a report of the Student Volunteer convention, which he attended in Indianapolis last week, followed by a masterly address to the young people by this live wire missionary.

The Ladies Social Union will hold its regular meeting in the Baptist church parlors Friday afternoon at 2:30. Election of officers and other important business will be attended to.

Henry Stout, '16, of Dayton, who has spent several days visiting his Sigma Chi brothers returned home Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Ullman were hosts at a charmingly appointed luncheon Tuesday honoring their son, Sergeant Kenneth Ullman of Camp Sherman and his chum, Henry Stout of Dayton.

HOW FRENCH RAILWAYS WERE WRECKED BY GERMANS

Section between shaded areas shows where Germans wiped out French railway lines. Dotted lines, as key above shows, represent destroyed railways; solid lines, railways still in use.

The wanton destruction of every railroad line in the war zone by the Germans has complicated France's problem of supplying food and other necessities to her people. The Germans in their retreat at the close of the war tore up the railroad tracks, destroyed equipment and bombed depots. The map, which appeared originally in a Paris newspaper, shows graphically what portion of the transportation lines in France were destroyed.

CO-OPERATION AMONG SHIPPERS

Small Shipments From City To Be Made To Certain Points on Certain Days.

Freight officials of the B. & O. and Pennsylvania railroads were in Newark yesterday and met a group of the manufacturers and shippers of the city to discuss what the railroads are calling "sailing dates."

These dates, the schedule of which will be announced later, are to designate the specified dates on which shipment will be received for certain points. It is an economic measure for the railroads and what it will mean to the shipper will be determined from the experiment.

Here yesterday were General Freight Agent Grey of Pittsburg for the Pennsylvania lines and Douglas and Wilson, agents for the B. & O. at Columbus. According to the plan, which is for less than car load shippers, on certain days shipment will be made to Zanesville, other days to Pittsburgh and so on. On these days if the merchants, or shipper has his material at the depot it will be sent out that day.

BRING 'EM BACK

J. Howard Jones organized the R. P. Sachs Bring 'Em Back club in a half minute this morning by signing a pledge to buy 100 W. S. S. in Paul Sachs' honor.

Gus Weigand, manager of the Midland Shoe company, has sent in an application for the Sergeant William D. Lanigan Bring 'Em Back club. It is signed by 16 people who agree to buy $5.00 worth of stamps in Lanigan's honor. The Lanigan club is made up of Gus Weigand, J. B. Edwards, M. V. McGinnis, Elizabeth Walters, Walter Bevard, Ralph Lanigan, Thomas H. O'Dell, R. J. McElroy, William R. Donahue, Orley Mohorney, G. W. Christman, Ottis McDaniel, Frank Pagel, Russell White, Elmo Still.

Chas. C. McGruder has completed the organization of the Fair Adams club.

Clem H. Cole has two Bring 'Em Back clubs to his credit—Thomas Worth and Carl Binder. And Mr. Cole bought all of the stamps personally. That means he purchased 200 of the 1919 issue and he did the same last year.

Harry P. Scott, proprietor of the Sherwood hotel, is in charge of the Major Charles W. Miller Bring 'Em Back club.

City Auditor Dodd has several application blanks for Bring 'Em Back clubs and he promises to send 'em in properly filled, too.

The Mound School Big Brothers club has been organized in honor of the brothers of Mound school pupils who are still in service. They are Walter J. Blizzard, Ernest Devine, Elmer L. FINAL ARMISTICE FIXES HUN ARMY AT 250,000

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Paris, Feb. 19.—When the Germans came to sign the terms of the new armistice, says a Havas dispatch from Treves, Mathias Erzberger handed to Marshal Foch a 23-page memorandum in which it was attempted to justify Germany's attitude, it being maintained that she had done her best to meet her obligations. He also gave the marshal a memorandum from Philipp Scheidemann, the new German chancellor, complaining of the increasingly hard terms forced upon Germany and protesting against the Germans being forced to evacuate Poland, delivering German fortresses to the Poles and abandoning the German people there.

A demand was made that the allies require the Poles to cease their attacks against the Germans.

This last request has already been complied with, a telegram having been sent to Warsaw from Paris last night.

The special commission of the supreme council, charged with drafting the terms of a definite armistice which will hold good until the peace preliminaries are signed, has almost completed its task and it is possible, says a Havas report, that Marshal Foch will be able to notify the Germans on Thursday or Friday of the military and naval terms which will be essentially those of the preliminary peace treaty. It is understood that the terms will include clauses by which Germany will be allowed to maitain only 250,000 men under arms to keep order. All war material beyond what is necessary to equip these troops, would, according to reports, be placed under control of the allies, who will also hold Germany's munition factories.

WILL HONOR LOWEL.

New York, Feb. 19—The four days' celebration of the centennary of the birth of James Russell Lowell, to be held under the auspices of the American Academy of Arts and Letters, will begin tonight with a reception at the home of President Nicholas Murray Butler, of Columbia University. AGED FRENCH PREMIER

[illegible] the Tiger [illegible] the [illegible] peace conference [illegible]. Head of the French delegation in the peace conference he has been an outstanding figure in the deliberations of that body, over whose sessions he presides.

[illegible] Clemenceau [illegible] sive personality, Premier Clemenceau, while attracting to himself a large and loyal following has, as well, determined and outspoken opponents. At every turn of affairs in the parliament, however, he has been able to wear down the opposition to him and just before the opening of the peace conference he and his administration were given a strong vote of confidence by the chamber of deputies.

Premier Clemenceau, while formerly classed as a radical, has come to be known in later years as a representative rather of the more moderate elements in the French body-politics and it is in this phase of his activity that he has been opposed by more extreme elements in the French political world, who have accused him of giving his policies too much of an imperialistic trend. He was credited at first with being opposed to the plan for the League of Nations in its broader phases expressing a preference for a balance of power secured by France, Great Britain, the United States and Italy. His representatives, however, have joined freely in the work of framing the covenant of the league and with some reservations, expressed approval of it as it was laid before the peace conference.

Notwithstanding his advanced years—he is 76 years of age—M. Clemenceau has continued in recent months to justify the sobriquet of "the tiger," which long has been applied to him, going through the trying work of the peace conference, with its many long consultations without showing signs of fatigue.

COMMISSION TO STUDY BALKAN LAND CLAIMS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Paris, Feb. 19.—When the Jugo-Slavs claims for territory on the eastern shore of the Adriatic came before the supreme council of the peace conference it was tentatively decided that they should be referred to the commission to which was entrusted the examination of Rumanian demands, says a Havas report. Baron Sonnino, the Italian foreign minister, objected to this plan, however, declaring that treaties dealing with these territories had been concluded between Italy, France and Great Britain in February, 1918. He said that these treaties were still in existence and consequently the signatories alone were qualified to modify them, acting in agreement, it is said.

This objection was supported by Premier Clemenceau of France, but A. J. Balfour, British secretary of state for foreign affairs, proposed compromise which was adopted. This stipulated that claims regarding Bulgaria and Austria-Hungary should be reserved.

The representatives of France on the higher economic council, it is announced will be Etienne Clementel, minister of commerce; Louis L. Klotz, minister of commerce, Louis L. Klotz, minister of reconstruction.

The Third Tramp
A Story in Four Parts
Part III.

1,000 BEATS 30,000

An advertising agent was in the habit of getting out for his own business little booklets each month. He said he believed in CIRCULATION. He didn't give a continental cuss for quality. He got out 30,000 booklets each month. They were Tramp Booklets. The cheapest kind of paper—the poorest kind of printing. They paid. Of course. On that number of booklets you can hardly fall down.

The Printing, Envelopes, Postage (unsealed), etc., for those 30,000 booklets cost him each month in round figures $1,000. They brought him a great lot of small orders, which enabled him to average about $10,000 yearly net profit.

One month he determined to make a new "try out." Every business man must make a "try out" if he doesn't want to become a down-and-out.

He got out 1,000 booklets. They were simply beautiful. When you got hold of one you didn't throw it away. You showed it to your friends and family —and kept it forever.

These 1,000 booklets, with envelopes and stamps, cost him $145 and he sent them by first class mail under a three-cent stamp.

As an actual fact they brought him in orders which netted him $5,000!

He has been able to cut down his expenses, and is taking big orders where in the past he took small orders—and is now running at a TREMENDOUS NET INCREASE over preceding years.

The Tramp Booklet picks up the pennies.

The Bookylet De Luxe picks up the dollars.

If DOLLARS look better to YOU than PENNIES, may we talk to you about YOUR Printing?

THOUSANDS HAVE KIDNEY TROUBLE AND NEVER SUSPECT IT

Applicants For Insurance Often Rejected.

Judging from reports from druggists who are constantly in direct touch with the public, there is one preparation that has been very successful in overcoming these conditions. The mild and healing influence of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its remarkable record of success.

An examining physician for one of the prominent Life Insurance Companies, in an interview on the subject, made the astonishing statement that one reason why so many applicants for insurance are rejected is because kidney trouble is so common to the American people, and the large majority of those whose applications are declined do not even suspect that they have the disease. It is on sale at all drug stores in bottles of two sizes, medium and large.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention the Newark Daily Advocate.

The Best Way to Treat Constipation

BY S. C. BABCOCK, M. D.

The medical books name many drugs that will move the bowels. The drug store shelves are loaded down with laxatives, purgatives and pills. The trouble with most of them is the after-effects. Constipated people know that pills work all right for a little while, but they soon lose their effect, and a change has to be made to something else. The constant taking of pills results in a form of bowel inactivity that is difficult to cure. The system becomes so accustomed to laxative drugs that the organs just won't work without them, and so the pill habit becomes as bad as constipation itself. Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., seems to me to have the right idea. He says the bowels should first be gently moved with Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, and in the meantime laxative foods only should be eaten. Figs, prunes, olive oil, spinach, bran, vegetables and fruits are fine for constipation. Chew every bite thoroughly, eat little meat, and be as active as possible. Now, doesn't that seem sensible? Pleasant Pellets will start the bowels working right; then it is up to you to keep them right by right eating. Try Pleasant Pellets for sick headache, coated tongue, biliousness, dizziness, torpid liver or to break up a cold. They are just fine!

Dr. Pierce's Anodyne Pile Ointment soothes, cools and heals piles in a most gratifying way. Perhaps there is no other remedy for this torturing trouble that relieves so surely and quickly. Dr. Pierce believes Anodyne Pile Ointment will overcome any case that can be overcome by medical treatment. Try it right now.

Dr. Pierce's Anuric Tablets are intended for people who suffer from kidney disorders—whose backs ache, and whose systems are overrun with uric acid. Nearly everybody has too much uric acid. Anuric Tablets dissolve uric acid quickly, as they are made double strength.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young — to do this you must watch your liver and bowels — there's no need of having a sallow complexion — dark rings under your eyes — pimples — a bilious look in your face — dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

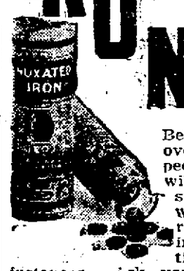

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

AMUSEMENTS

GRAND.
Thursday and Friday.

Miss Risdon's artistic talents could scarcely be accorded a better opportunity for exploitation, and her quick perception and grasp of the dramatic values involved, combined with her undoubted physical charms, win instant sympathy for the vividly outlined character-study of the sculptor's daughter. Every member of the supporting cast contributes by his or her clever work in no small degree to the success of the feature ("The Hypocrites"), which is directed with admirable stagecraft and good judgment.—Exhibitors' Trade Review.

At the Grand Thursday and Friday.

GEM.
Thursday.

An entirely new role is created by Wm. S. Hart in Artcraft picture, which is the attraction at the Gem theatre. The last appearance of the famous Thomas H. Ince star was in "Wolves of the Rail," in which Hart played the role of a railroad detective, and in his newest production, which is entitled "'Blue Blazes' Rawden," he plays the title role of the boss of a rough lumber camp in the wilds of the Canadian Northwest. "'Blue Blazes' Rawden" is a thriller and gives Hart an opportunity of dominating sensational scenes entirely different from anything he has ever appeared in before.

LYRIC.

Rube Fulkerson's Ginger Girls are the feature attraction for this week at the Lyric, presenting "Down on the Farm", Monday and Tuesday. Wednesday and Thursday the company will present a western musical comedy, "Montana Bill" in three scenes, with special scenery and musical numbers. Baby Mary, the child performer is creating a big hit with her songs and dances. The Harmony Trio, composed of three male members deserve credit for their harmony.

ALHAMBRA.
Gladys Brockwell.

The big feature at the Alhambra today and tomorrow will be Gladys Brockwell, who is seen in the William Fox feature, "The Call of The Soul." The story tells of:

Barbara Deming goes picnicking with Dr. Clayton on an island. He is head of the hospital in which she is a trained nurse. Their little rowboat is stolen, so Barbara Deming and the physician are marooned for the night. The worst happens. Although the next morning brings sunshine and a boat that takes them back home, it is the darkest morning in Barbara's life. Dr. Clayton begs her to let him atone for his wrongdoing by marrying her, but she spurns him as a scoundrel. In time Barbara realizes she is to be a mother. But now she is alone in the world to face her shame, for Dr. Clayton is away in the Arctic regions with Neil McClintock's expedition. A kind woman cares for Barbara's little daughter, while the unhappy mother continues her work as a trained nurse.

An accident befalls Neil McClintock in the Arctic, and after days he returns home an invalid. Barbara Deming is called upon to nurse him. He knows nothing of her relations with Clayton. A great love springs up between the explorer and his gentle nurse, but Barbara hesitates to accept his offer of marriage because of the dreadful secret she must hide from him. At last, however, she succumbs to his entreaties and becomes his wife. Still McCormick knows nothing of Barbara's little daughter.

"The Firefly of France."

Now like a firefly in very truth is the daring aviator, who, far above the battlescarred lands, darts hither and thither upon his mission! He is the eyes of the army.

In "The Firefly of France," the new Paramount picture starring Wallace Reid with Ann Little, which will be shown at the Alhambra Friday and Saturday, the work of an intrepid birdman forms the basis of a story that sets the blood tingling and makes one of the most interesting pictures that has been seen here in many weeks.

Houdini a Film Star.

Houdini has finally succumbed to the lure of the films, and will make his debut on the screen of the Alhambra next week, when the first episode of "The Master Mystery," B. A. Rolfe's 15 chapter super serial, will be shown.

"The Master Mystery" is not in the nature of an expose of the famous Houdini feats of self liberation, but a thrilling mystery story by Arthur B. Reeve and Charles A. Logue, in which Houdini performs not only elaborations of the stunts that made him one of the highest salaried performers in vaudeville, but also the title of the handcuff king.

As the picture consists of 15 chapters the Alhambra will show a new episode every Wednesday and Thursday for 15 weeks.

GLADYS BROCKWELL—DIRECTION WILLIAM FOX
At The Alhambra Today and Tomorrow

AUDITORIUM.
"Charley's Aunt."

Tomorrow afternoon and evening has been marked off the theatrical calendar for the presentation of "Charley's Aunt" at the Auditorium theatre under the direction of Miller Risser. Laughter, holding both its sides but illy expresses the condition of an audience witnessing "Charley's Aunt." Even the blase theatre goers forgets to look bored while other folks lean back with mouths wide open and facial muscles convulsed with laughter. "Charley's Aunt" is first a clever comedy, secondly, a screamingly amusing one, and last, a comedy with music. The whole civilized world has been laughing at "Charley's Aunt" for the past twenty years and is still the happier and better for it. Great interest in "Charley's Aunt" has been aroused among the local fair sex because of the fact that the leading part, the aunt, is not played by a woman, but by an honest to goodness man and so cleverly is this part played and so hilarious withal is the farce is unanimous in its opinion that "the funniest woman on the stage is a man and he's in 'Charley's Aunt.'"

A rip-roaring scene in the new musical version of "Charley's Aunt," the joyful comedy, which will be at Auditorium, Thursday, Feb. 20, with matinee.

Mary Pickford.

Wanted—A good cook, not too good looking, but just average.

That isn't the way it was advertised, but it might have been for all the good it did pretty "Jean Mackaye," an impoverished aristocratic girl, when she sought a situation as cook.

Mary Pickford plays "Jean" in her next picture, "How Could You, Jean," which will be displayed at the Auditorium theatre Friday and Saturday and it gives her another opportunity to display her rare versatility. As "Jean," Miss Pickford essays a role which it is believed, will be a worthy successor to her portrayals of the last year which have made her position at the top of the list of the world's screen artists, more secure than ever.

"The Smarter Set."

"The Smarter Set" is the title under which the former "Smart Set" is now touring the show world, and under which a lively entertainment will be given at the Auditorium on Monday afternoon and evening. As show-goers are aware, the "Smart Set" was one of the most famous colored organizations ever appearing on the stage, and it is said that the new company is well up to the mark as regards singing and dancing ability and general fun-making. In the re-organization of "The Smart Set," it was the especial care of the producers to secure voices which are exceptional even among the sweet singers of the Southern colored folks, and in consequence it is claimed that a musical attraction "The Smarter Set" is in a class by itself.

Seats ready Saturday.

Howe's Pictures.

A fascinating tour of the land of the rising sun, Japan, is a feature of Lyman H. Howe's newest Travel Festival, which comes to the Auditorium for one day, Wednesday, Feb. 26th. This motion picture visit to the flowery kingdom naturally includes numerous glimpses of the famed Japanese temples, the most gorgeous shrines in the world.

The Nippon temples give an odd insight into Japanese thought. Buddhism was the inspiration of all the old time artists and builders of Japan. Their whole soul was in the work, the result being perfect workmanship, with never a hidden defect. So sincerely did they believe that the gods watched every detail in their work and so thoroughly did they have faith in themselves, that they deliberately stopped short of perfection in deference to the heavenly powers. They purposely incorporated an obvious defect into a structure otherwise perfect in symmetry and beauty. For instance, they frequently inverted the design on a carved pillar. In this way they turned aside the wrath of the gods, since, with a perfect temple, the jealousy of heaven, would have been aroused.

Healthy Mothers Healthy Babies

Every true mother realizes the fact that her baby's health depends upon her own, that the very vitality of her child is influenced by her own physical condition. How important it is, therefore, to guard against any derangement of the female organs, which induce general weakness, nervousness, constant fatigue and utter inability to properly care for her child. Please remember, that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought health and strength to thousands of such mothers.

Mitchell, Ind.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me so much during the time I was looking forward to the coming of my little one that I am recommending it to other expectant mothers. Before taking it, some days I suffered with neuralgia so badly that I thought I could not live, but after taking three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was entirely relieved of neuralgia, I had gained in strength and was able to go around and do all my housework. My baby when 7 months old weighed 19 pounds and I feel better than I have for a long time. I never had any medicine do me so much good."—Mrs. PEARL MONYHAN, Mitchell, Ind.

Good health during and after maternity is a most important factor to both mother and child, and many letters have been received by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., telling of health restored during this trying period by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

GAS IN THE STOMACH IS DANGEROUS

Recommends Daily Use of Magnesia to Overcome Trouble, Caused by Fermenting Food and Acid Indigestion.

Gas and wind in the stomach accompanied by that full, bloated feeling after eating are almost certain evidence of the presence of excessive hydrochloric acid in the stomach, creating so-called "acid indigestion."

Acid stomachs are dangerous because too much acid irritates the delicate lining of the stomach, often leading to gastritis accompanied by serious stomach ulcers. Food ferments and sours, creating the distressing gas which distends the stomach and hampers the normal functions of the vital internal organs, often affecting the heart.

It is the worst of folly to neglect such a serious condition or to treat with ordinary digestive aids which have no neutralizing effect on the stomach acids. Instead get from any druggist a few ounces of Bisurated Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This will drive the gas, wind and bloat right out of the body, sweeten the stomach, neutralize the excess acid and prevent its formation and there is no sourness or pain. Bisurated Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and the best form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.

WHY HOUSEWORK IS UNPOPULAR.

The shortage of domestic servants is greatly regretted by many women who have always had help in their homes. It comes hard on those who were never taught household arts in their youth. And many women are scarcely able to do their own work for physical reasons. Many married women take business and teaching positions, and have depended upon maids to keep their home work along.

To many such women the unpopularity of housework among young women is looked at as an example of their lack of sense. It is argued that when cost of food is calculated, the work pays better than most positions in stores and factories.

Probably the principal reason why housework is so unpopular, is that the hours are long and confining. In factories and stores now, a 54 hour week is very common, and many of the industries have come to a 48 hour week. The average housework girl works from 6 or 7 o'clock in the morning to at least 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and then for a couple of hours for the evening meal. She has to keep at it a good part of Sunday. Altogether there is a working week of 70 to 75 hours.

The housework girl of course has to spend no time going and coming between her home and her work. She spends nothing for car fare, lunches or board. But after all allowances are made, she puts in from a quarter to a third more time than the factory girl.

If the women want to attract any large number of girls back into domestic service, they will have to put the working hours on a more attractive basis. If they could be arranged on a 48 hour or even a 54 hour a week standard, at the present wages paid the work would look attractive to many.

Hearing that a speed of 135 miles per hour has been made on the Daytona, Fla., track, by an automobile equipped with an airplane motor, many of the speeders are sore at their old junk that only makes 40 per through the crowded streets of their home towns.

When the saloons close, what will those men do who formerly were called out from their homes to attend so many evening committee meetings on public business.

Pale, weak, nervous people, or those suffering from weakness incident to war excitement or the dreadful epidemics, need the prompt, pronounced, permanent effects of iron, manganese, nux and pepsin as combined in Peptiron. The run-down and debilitated find they pick up quickly when they take Peptiron. Get it today and begin taking it at once.

WIND POWER.

The possibilities of the use of air power in industry developed by windmills, will strike most people as merely "hot air." Yet a competent scientific authority writing in the last number of the Contemporary Review, takes the proposition seriously. He feels that the high prices of coal, the high charges on freight both by rail and water, will compel many industries to consider wind power

The world formerly did its heavy work by wind and water Innumerable generations moved their freight on the sea by sails. On land windmills were far more common than now. Recently however, there has been a considerable revival in the use of windmills They are specially adapted for pumping water, since this work can be done at times when the wind is favorable, and stopped in times of dead calm or when the wind is so violent as to endanger the mill.

The writer referred to believes that the operation of a windmill can be satisfactorily stabilized by the generation of electric power and the use of storage batteries. These would assure a reserve of power to cover the periods when the mill could not be successfully worked. He speaks of a plan to operate a bacon factory with a 200 horse power windmill, also of a mill of 40 feet diameter that has saved 200 tons of coal in a year and cost nothing for upkeep.

His theory is that such windmills would be peculiarly suited for small workshops where the activities of a rural district are concentrated. The subject is worth the attention of scientists and ingenious men. With fuel constantly rising and water power development costly, every windmill that is erected means an addition to the productive resources of the community.

When the cost of producing goods goes up, the full advance is stuck on the consumer. When the cost of production goes down, the difference is needed by the middlemen and distributors.

The people who about this time of year always growl because the winter has been so cold, are growling after this warm winter because they forsee a cold spring.

Butter, eggs, and meat prices have come off a bit This is perhaps a case of feeding up the consumer before undertaking a major operation on his pocketbook

These Father and Son celebrations they are having are not wholly new, but formerly they always used to occur out in the wood shed.

Some of the higher ups spend $200 worth of time lamenting about the $100 income tax they have to pay.

PUSHING EXPORTS.

(Philadelphia Record.)

Representatives of the newly created Textile Export Corporation are now on the war to Europe to take their stations in England, France and several other countries. This movement affords evidence that the manufacturers, not only of cotton goods, who have long had a considerable foreign business, but of woolen goods also, of which we have exported very little, believe that the products of American mills can meet European competition in Europe in spite of the difference in wages which cuts so great a figure in all the arguments of the protectionists. At the annual convention of the National Dry Goods Association the president of a concern in Wichita said that in a conference with textile manufacturers assurances were given that the Textile Export Association was confident of being able to do a very large foreign business in American fabrics, thus averting the possibility of a dangerous surplus of goods in this country.

At this same convention the selling agent of a concern which has mills in America and in France said that serges which were selling in Paris for 20 france a metre could be laid down by American manufacturers for 18. Evidently in this line American manufacturers need no protection, and there is at least a suggestion that other American manufacturers do not.

No sooner will the Republicans find themselves in possession of the congress than we shall hear of the pressing importance of higher protective duties on dye stuffs in order to protect an infant industry from the fatal competition of foreigners. Indeed, Alfred Shaw, head of a dye making company, says that the industry must have at least three years more of protection. But does any industry ever get to the point where it admits that it no longer needs protection? Mr. Shaw says,

"For the last three years American producers have not only supplied the enormous textile demands consequent upon the war, but likewise the need of the American army and navy, and in addition thereto have produced dyestuffs for export to a total value for 1918 of over $10,000,000."

We concede that with German dyestuffs out of the market our manufacturers of colors have had an opportunity that will not continue unimpaired after the restoration of peace. But we have had ample occasion to observe that when an infant industry is tolerably well grown it always develops into a vested right which has a claim upon the largess of congress.

The dye manufacturers have not only exported during the war but they expect to go on exporting after the war Mr. Shaw says "We are establishing offices in the Far East and elsewhere." No one would grudge protection to an industry during its infancy, but experience shows that it never admits being grown up. The very large exports of manufactured goods from this country are the most conclusive evidence that the need of protection is to say the least, very greatly exaggerated.

What is commonly overlooked is that the higher the tax on dyes, the greater will be the cost of making textiles and the less will the manufacturers of textiles find it practical to export All duties on materials are handicaps imposed on the American manufacturer.

Did You Know

That James Russell Lowell was born February 19, 1819, one hundred years ago today? He was born at Elmwood, the fine old historic home at Cambridge, Massachusetts, and this remained his residence during his whole life and was the scene of his death in 1891. Lowell began to write when quite young, having published a volume of poetry when he was twenty one years of age. In his twenty ninth year there appeared three of his most famous works, "The Bigelow Papers," "A Fable for Critics," and "The Vision of Sir Launfal." He was editor of the "Atlantic Monthly" from its beginning in 1857 until 1861. In 1877 he became minister of the United States to Spain, and in 1880 he was transferred to England, where he represented his country until 1885.

WHAT IS MATTER WITH WHITE?

(Indianapolis Star)

William Allen White once wrote an article called "What is the Matter With Kansas?" that stirred not only his state but the nation, so keen was his understanding and so sharp his denunciation of certain false political doctrines prevalent at that time Just at present people are likely to begin asking "What is the matter with White?"

It is no fault of Mr. White's that he is coupled with Herron as one of the two American representatives to treat with the Bolsheviki, and the first thought of most persons who know him, at least by reputation, undoubtedly was that he would be a good offset for his official associate. But Mr. White is quoted as saying: "As for the Bolsheviki, I shall go to this conference without any preconceived notions for or against them," and as advancing the further opinion that they should have a chance to apply their theories in order to prove whether or not they have something worth while to offer.

It is right that a man sent on this mission should have a fair mind and not allow prejudice to bind him to any principle of truth or to any just argument that might be offered, but that a man of Mr. White's intelligence could go without any preconceived notions as to the character and purposes of the Bolsheviki seems incredible If he has followed the bloody trial of Lenine and Trotzky, and has seen the record of looting and destruction—their ruin in Russia, in short—he can hardly be without some opinions in regard to them.

Mr. White's attitude of knowing nothing about the Bolsheviki is a reminder of the juror who is the more acceptable to the defendant, the less he knows about the case. But it is possible to be just and not be ignorant and Mr. White would have left a better impression had he not made this ill considered remark. In other respects he has seemed lately not to be quite the same hopeful, cheerful, happy American he used to be.

In his latest novel, "The Heart of a Fool," he shows a pessimistic mood. Edgar Lee Masters once had the atrocious taste to dig up—metaphorically—a village graveyard and disclose the sins and dark secrets of the men and women buried there. They all had sins. White's novel deals with the history of a village and though his characters are alive, so many of them are rascally and morally frail that that they somehow suggest Master's "Spoon River." For the time White seems to have forgotten his humor and his level headed, wholesome view of life. In spite of his attitude toward the Bolsheviki, however, it cannot be believed that he will see them as other than they are—murderous and brutal destroyers of civilization.

GERMANY IN CHAINS.

(Pittsburgh Gazette Times)

The significance of the extension of the armistice is that Germany is incapable of offering more than verbal resistance to any terms which the winners of the war choose to impose upon her. Were it possible for the enemy to secure more considerate treatment, through threats, promises or cajolery, rest assured she would make use of those means. That the armistice commissioners acting for the Ebert government have stopped with the utterance of protests that are little more than pleas for relief evidences the helplessness of the beaten country. It is absolutely at the mercy of the allies. And it is not a bad sign that so much of responsible statesmanship as there is east of the Rhine realizes that Germany's only hope of escape from the bondage in which she finds herself rests in her "being good" to the extent of complying as gracefully as may be with the conditions written by the conquerors. Freedom for Germany is far in the future. But she will only make her lot the harder by struggling against what she must endure. If the final peace terms are no less lenient than the armistice conditions not even France need fear anything from its disagreeable neighbor.

STATE SUFFRAGE.

(Cleveland Plain Dealer)

The defeat of the federal suffrage amendment in the senate, with the probability that the issue will not be revived in the present congress, renews interest in a measure now pending in the Ohio legislature to confer the right of suffrage upon the women of this state As long as it seemed probable that congress would soon submit the federal proposal to the states, there was little attention paid the Fouts bill But Senator Pomerene's negative makes it a live question at once.

There can of course, be small doubt that an assembly which was ready to urge Ohio's senators to support the federal provision will be found ready at once to indorse state suffrage. It will go to the voters in the form of a constitutional amendment

Ohio voters have several times in recent years defeated suffrage proposals submitted for approval. Opponents of suffrage, however, can have no assurance they will repeat the performance. Public thought has undergone a revolution in sveral directions during these few years The present assembly may well submit the suffrage amendmnet at the earliest appropriate time.

Cocoanut Oil Fine For Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain mulsified cocoanut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsified cocoanut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.

ELKS ADOPT SIX FRENCH ORPHANS

Local Lodge To Look After Youngsters Left Fatherless By Great War.

The local lodge of Elks at the meeting last evening decided to adopt six fatherless boys of France and has so notified the local official in charge. After all arrangements have been completed different members of the lodge will at various times send little tokens to the boys and will also see that they have a fine Christmas and are not overlooked in the way of toys and necessities.

At last night's session 32 new applications were presented, making forty-one now up for consideration and a class of between forty-five and fifty will be initiated in the near future, which will be followed with a banquet and social entertainment.

The entertainment committee announces a dance for Elks and their ladies on the evening of Feb. 25. Fields orchestra will furnish the dance program and refreshments will be served, the hours being from 8 to 12 o'clock.

The Daughters of the American Revolution will entertain their friends on Friday afternoon with a colonial silver tea at the home of Mrs. Frank Windle in the Mt. Vernon road. The hours announced are from 2:30 to 5 o'clock.

Assisting Mrs. Windle as hostesses will be Mrs. John Sachs, Mrs. Samuel Sachs, Mrs. O. J Barnes, Mrs. W. H. Knauss, Mrs. B. B. Jones, Mrs. Pfeffer, Mrs D V. Bay, Mrs. A. H. Rickert, Miss Gladys Beecher and Miss Haughey.

The hostesses will wear the Colonial gowns and the decorations will be red, white and blue lights, candles and the American flag.

This organization has taken an active interest in war relief work, having knitted for the navy, made and sent infants' layettes to the French orphaned babies, made scrap books for the wounded soldiers in hospitals and met their quota with the other chapters in Ohio in building and furnishing the beautiful hostess house at Camp Sherman.

Hetuck chapter has also subscribed liberally to the $100,000 Liberty Loan which the national organization gave the government on the fourth loan, and the income for this will be used in educating and assisting the married soldier on his return to his country.

The organization is now rebuilding a French village, Tilloloy, which was destroyed by the Germans. The cost will be $52,000. Mrs. William H. Wait, publicity director of the war relief committee tells of the village. It is on the Aisne not far from Peronene. In 1914 it was captured by the Germans; in 1915 re occupied by the French and retaken by the Germans and they left it in utter devastation when they retired in 1917. The homes are gone, the people themselves are penniless and hungry but their spirits are unconquered. Mrs Wait says: "With our help financially they can again become self-supporting and can face the future without despair. To the Daughters of the American Revolution has come this wonderful opportunity to reconstruct a whole village to start 400 people in a new life, to help rehabilitate France, our ally in two wars."

A record will be kept of everything that is given and a receipt returned. A book will be kept in the village recording the names of all those who helped so their names will never be forgotten.

Interesting data concerning Tilloloy appears in the D. A. R. magazine, and Hetuck chapter will have a part in the rebuilding of the village and hopes to be able to assist in the education of the children of Tilloloy.

White Carnation Review will sew all day Thursday at the home of Mrs. George Glassmeier in 490 West Main street.

The Pocahontas club will give a card party Thursday evening at Red Man's hall.

The Royal Neighbors will sew all day for the Red Cross Friday, at the home of Mrs Hatfield, corner of East Main street and Curtis avenue.

The church and Sunday school members of the First Baptist will have an indoor picnic, Monday afternoon and evening. Music, games and picnic baskets will be the features. Each class will do its stunt and the families of the pupils or members will be guests. The picnic is to be held in the dining room of the church.

Mr. and Mrs. J M. Wharton of Hoover street, entertained at dinner Sunday: Mr. and Mrs Charles S. Jones and family, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Shepherd and children, and Mr. Shepherds brother, Ross V. Shepherd, who has returned home from overseas.

GREATEST DANGER FROM INFLUENZA

The greatest danger from an attack of the grip, or influenza, is after the acute stage is over when the lowered vitality makes the system an easy prey for any germ disease to which it is exposed. The debility resulting from an attack of the grip is so persistent that, if the blood is not built up and the strength restored, it may last for months and years. That this is unnecessary is shown by the experience of Mrs. Laura M. Van Scoy, who lives at at No. 20½ Thorpe street, Danbury, Conn. She says:

"I had a severe attack of grip, and before I had fully recovered rheumatism set in and tormented me for three months. I was in a badly run-down state. Soon after it began I was so lame for a week that I could hardly walk. It kept growing steadily worse and pretty soon I actually couldn't walk. At last I had to give up completely and for three weeks I was obliged to keep to my bed. My knees were so stiff I couldn't bend them and my hands were perfectly helpless. Then the pains began to threaten my heart and thoroughly alarmed me.

"While I was suffering this way I chanced to run across a little book that told about the merits of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The statements in it impressed me and led me to buy a box. These pills proved the very thing I needed. Improvement set in as soon as I began to take them, and it was very marked by the time I had finished the first box. Four boxes made me a well woman."

Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Price fifty cents per box; six boxes for $2.50. Write to the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., for free book, "Building Up the Blood."

Wall Street.

New York, Feb. 19.—Changes at the outset of today's stock market were limited to fractional gains in oil, motors, tobaccos and distilling issues, standard shares showing no material alteration. U. S. Steel opened at a slight advance but this was immediately cancelled. Firmer tendencies set in before the end of the first half hour, rails, equipments and shippings contributing to the improvement.

Trading became more active in the second hour, dealings continuing to center around oils, motors, tobaccos and equipments. Gains among oils ranged from 1 to 3 points and in motors and subsidiaries a large range was shown. Kelly-Springfield tire advanced five points. Baldwin Locomotive, Pressed Steel Car and General Electric rose 2 to 3 points. United Cigars was strongest of the tobacco group. Rails, U. S. Steel and Coppers were firm. Heavy buying of the several 4 1-4 issues at slight gains was the feature of the bond market.

Chicago Grain.

Chicago, Feb. 19.—Corn developed considerable strength today as a result of the readiness with which offerings were absorbed. Opening prices, which varied from the same as yesterday's finish to 1c lower with May 1.20 to 1.20 5-8 and July 1.16 1-2 to 1.17, were followed by a moderate further setback, and then by a sharp general upturn.

Liberal export sales to Holland had a bullish effect on oats. After opening unchanged to 1-4c off, the market sagged a little more, but later rose to well above yesterday's finish.

Provisions rose with grain. Lard though, seemed inclined to lag.

TWINS ARE CITED FOR BRAVERY IN ACTION

In the citations being announced by General Pershing for gallantry in action are often found facts which are more colorful than fiction.

Recently there were found the names of Victor Hermann and Bertrand Herrmann of Newark, N. J. These boys are brothers and twins—or, rather were, for one of them was killed in action

Serving together with Company D, 311th infantry, they were awarded the distinguished service cross for "extraordinary heroism in action near Gandpre, France, October 23."

According to the citations the twin-brothers voluntarily crossed an open field heavily swept by machine gun fire, and assisted First Sergeant James P Collins to carry to shelter their company commander, who had been mortally wounded

As they were returned to the American lines, Bertrand Herrmann was slightly wounded and later in the day while being evacuated to the rear was killed by a shell.

"Why did Cain kill Abel?" asked the Sunday school teacher. "Maybe Abel suggested to Cain a constitutional amendment to cut down all the apple trees and vineyards," suggested the boy who reads the papers.

A HOME MADE GRAY HAIR REMEDY

You Can Make at Home a Better Gray Hair Remedy Than You Can Buy.

Gray streaked or faded hair is not only unbecoming, but unnecessary. You can darken it without using a dye. "Anyone can prepare a simple mixture at home, at very little cost, that will darken gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. To a half pint of water add 1 ounce of bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound and ¼ ounce of glycerine. These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost, or the druggist will put it up for you. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. This will make a gray-haired person look twenty years younger. It is not a dye, it does not color the most delicate scalp; is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off."

IT IS TIME TO MAKE MENTHO-LAXENE SYRUP

Anyone Can Make a Full Pint of Laxative, Curative Cold and Cough Medicine Cheaply at Home.

Everybody is subject to colds and coughs at this season. Be prepared! Have on hand a full pint of Mentho-Laxene syrup that checks and aborts colds, relieves coughing and gradually brings permanent relief. The full and best benefits are derived if you begin taking it at the very outset of a cold or cough—because you can check or abort the cold—and save many hours of distress and perhaps ward off pneumonia and other serious results of a neglected cold.

Mentho-Laxene is pure, contains no opiates or narcotics. It is pleasant, penetrating, healing and curative beyond any preparation you can buy ready-made. Full directions and guarantee are with every bottle of Mentho-Laxene. It will more than please you or The Blackburn Products Co., Dayton, Ohio, will refund your money.

Hundreds of thousands of bottles of Mentho-Laxene have been sold and no over 20 people have wanted their money back. That tells how good it is.—(Adv.)

DRIVE THE LIQUOR HABIT FROM YOUR HOME

CAN BE DONE SECRETLY.

NEW YORK—Physicians and druggists unhesitatingly recommend Tescum powders for the liquor habit in any form. They quickly destroy the craving and make whisky and other alcoholic beverages repugnant. Druggists will tell you Tescum is selling better than any other remedy for the liquor habit. There is a reason for this. It is because it gives better satisfaction. One physician says: "I can stand in the door of my home and throw a stone into a neighbor's yard to whom I gave Tescum powders for drunkenness and he was completely cured. Have also cured a large number of other patients." A druggist reports: "Tescum is having an enormous sale. It gives excellent satisfaction." A lady recently wrote: "I have used Tescum on my husband secretly and he has not taken a drink in three months." Another lady says: "I only wish I had known of Tescum before." Here is another who has tried it: "After giving two boxes of Tescum I did not crave liquor." Another writes: "I don't think it's expensive at all. Just think of the thousands of dollars I have spent for whisky. The few dollars I spent for Tescum has been worth thousands." Here is an extract from another letter: "I sent a box of Tescum to my friend, Mrs. C. M., for her to try on her husband. Hope she will be as successful as I have been, as it is wonderful. I will never tell my husband what cured him." And so on it goes. One enthusiastic report after another. If you have a relative or friend who drinks, just try it for a few weeks and note the marvelous change. They all soon explain that drink does not taste the same and in a short time they will stop altogether and never know the reason why.

Note—A [illegible] druggist when shown the above article, said: "Yes, Tescum is a very remarkable remedy for the drink habit. It is harmless, effective and is having an enormous sale.
